I, MILDRED DUBOIS, residing in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, do hereby make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills and codicils thereto, at any time heretofore by me made.

First. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint Central Hanover Bank and Trust Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, to be Executor under this will.

Second. I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as may be practicable.

Third. I direct that upon my decease my remains be cremated.

Fourth. I give and bequeath to my brother Floyd R. DuBois of Englewood, New Jersey, the bloodstone signet ring worn by his father, grandfather, and great grandfather.

Fifth. I give and bequeath to my sister Katharine DuBois Emmons my large Kermanshah rug and also the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.) in cash.

Sixth. I give and bequeath to my niece Mary Delafield DuBois of Englewood, New Jersey, my diamond pin, which was originally a bracelet belonging to her grandmother.

Seventh. I give and bequeath to my nephew John Delafield Rudolph of New Canaan, Connecticut, my mahogany table desk; and the mahogany cabinet for letters which belonged to his great grandfather, John Delafield, and which I believe to have been made by him.

Eighth. I give and bequeath to my niece Mary Ann DuBois Rudolph, of New Canaan, Connecticut, the pair of gold bracelets which were my father's wedding present to my mother.

Ninth. I give and devise to my niece Theodora Delafield DuBois of Washington, Connecticut, my house and land in Washington, Connecticut, known as "Greenleaf", including every house, studio, or other building now standing or which may be erected upon such land.

Tenth. I give and bequeath to my brother-in-law Harold W. Rudolph all works of sculpture modelled by me and not disposed of during my lifetime.

Eleventh. I give and bequeath to my friend Elizabeth Copley Singleton, at present headmistress of the Girls Latin School of Chicago, my gold daisy pin.

Twelfth. I give and bequeath to each of my sisters and brothers and to my friend Priscilla Lockwood Loomis, any article or articles to be selected by each in turn from the contents or furnishings of my house at Washington, Connecticut, known as "Greenleaf", and all the rest of the contents and furnishings of said house, except such as may have been hereinbefore specifically bequeathed, I give and bequeath to my niece Theodora Delafield DuBois. I would like my sister Katharine to have first choice, then my brother Floyd, then my sister Eleanor, then my brother Delafield, then my friend Priscilla Loomis, choosing in this order until all are satisfied.

Thirteenth. From the remainder of my real and personal property I give and bequeath to each of the five children, named below, of my friend Serena Marshall Weld, now deceased, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.); Serena M. Weld, Elizabeth M. Weld, Christopher M. Weld, Julia M. Weld and Penelope Weld, all of New York.

Fourteenth. From the remainder of my personal property I give and bequeath to my friend Marie R. Perrin, formerly a teacher in the Ethical Culture School of New York City, provided she shall survive me, the sum of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.)

Fifteenth. I authorize my Executor to deliver the property embraced in the seventh, eighth and twelfth articles of my Will to any beneficiaries therein named who may be minors upon their individual receipts or the receipts of a parent without the intervention of any guardian or trustee.

Sixteenth. From the remainder, if any, of my personal property after payment of all taxes and expense of administration, I give and bequeath to the Brearley School of New York City, the sum of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.). While no condition is attached to this bequest, it is my earnest desire and hope that this sum will be invested and reinvested, and that the income therefrom will be used at the discretion of the President of the Board of Directors of said school, the Head of the school and the Assistant Head, as a fund to be given, annually or as hereinafter set forth, to such teacher of the Brearley School as may be on Sabbatical Year and may be, in the opinion of the three officers of the school above named, most likely to benefit by such addition to her income in increasing the pleasure of her Sabbatical Year. Nothing contained in this expressed desire shall be construed as preventing the income from the said fund from being accumulated for several years or from being divided among several teachers if the said three school officers when in office so determine. I should like this fund to be called the Serena Marshall Weld Fund because it is given in memory of my dear friend, Serena Marshall, a Brearley graduate, in appreciation of the happiness her life brought to me, and to all who knew her; and in the hope that a sense of joy will always be connected with her name.

W I L L

Seventeenth. I hereby direct my Executor to pay out of my residuary estate all transfer and inheritance taxes that may be imposed upon the legacies contained in the foregoing articles of my Will numbered Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Sixteenth, and that the same shall not be chargeable to or paid by the legatees in said paragraphs named.

Estate of
Mildred DuBois

Eighteenth. All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situate, I give, devise and bequeath to my sister Eleanor DuBois Rudolph, my brother Delafield DuBois, and my sister-in-law Theodora DuBois, wife of Delafield, in equal shares, share and share alike, absolutely and in fee simple.

Nineteenth. I hereby authorize and empower my said Executor, its successor or successors, in its discretion to sell, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of, at such times and in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as to it may seem most advantageous and for the best interests of my estate, the whole or any part of the real estate, not hereinbefore specifically devised, of which I may die seized or possessed, or any interest therein, and to execute and deliver any and all conveyances, deeds or other instruments that may be necessary or proper to effectuate the purposes of this provision.
